MEXICAN CAPITAL IN HANDS OF REBELS, UNCONFIRMED REPORT; WIRE SERVICE OUT

Three State Capitals Reported
As Fallen to Revolutionists.

NO NEWS FROM EMBASSY

Belief at Washington Carranza May Have Closed Wireless Station to Screen Movements; Much Activity on Part of Revolutionists on Border.

By Associated Press.
EL PASO, Tex., May 8.—Three state capitals in Mexico fell into the hands of the revolutionists today through the revolt of Carranza garrisons, coincidentally with the unconfirmed report given out here that Mexico City, capital of the republic, had been taken by General Benjamin Hill.

EL PASO, May 8.—Revolutionary forces under General Hill have taken Mexico City, according to an unconfirmed report received here today from Chihuahua City and made public by revolutionary leaders here.

The message from Chihuahua said "It has been confirmed that President Carranza left the capital for Vera Cruz."

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Mexico City is believed here to have been virtually cut off from communication with the outside world through the destruction of the wire lines by the revolutionists. The State Department has received no word from the Mexican capital since Thursday.

There is a powerful wireless station in the capital but there was some doubt whether it was in operation. In some Mexican circles it was suggested that Carranza probably had clogged this station so as to screen his activities.

WAGE OF $2,500 YEAR NEEDED FOR FAMILY OF FIVE

Cannot Be Maintained in "Recent Poverty" For Less in U. S., Railroad Labor Board Is Told.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 8.—A minimum of $2,500 a year is necessary for the support of an American family of five, W. J. Lauck, consulting economist for the railroad brotherhoods asserted today before the Railway Labor Board.

Mr. Lauck, who yesterday charged corporate profiteers with being chiefly responsible for the present living costs presented today a demand in behalf of the $200,000 railway employees for the establishment of a minimum wage throughout the industry. He presented to the board a compilation of budgets of the cost of living based on study made under his supervision and by federal and state agencies.

"It is impossible," he said, "for a family of five in the United States to maintain itself even in decent poverty under existing conditions for a penny less than $2,500 a year."

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS TO PARTICIPATE ON MEMORIAL DAY

More Impressive Observance of Day Than in Many Years Seems to Be Assured.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, at a meeting last night, determined to join with William F. Kuri Post, No. 104, Grand Army of the Republic, in the observance of Memorial Day. The American Legion post has already signified its intention of carrying out plans in cooperation with the Grand Army arrangements and the action of the Foreign Veterans will coordinate all three in a general observance.

With all the city's soldier organizations making plans for the observance of the day it is certain that Memorial Day exercises will be carried out more completely than for many years. Until last year the act of honoring the memory of the soldier dead was always left to the Grand Army and Sons of Veterans with a sprinkling of Foreign War members assisting.

At the Foreign Veterans' meeting it was also determined to attend the memorial church services to be held Sunday, May 23, which will be held in the First Presbyterian church. The organization will also furnish the firing squad for Memorial Day.

MISS HELEN FRICK PAYS VISIT TO HER FATHER'S OLD HOME

Daughter of Late Coke Magnate Chats With Aged School-mate at Scottsdale.

HAS LONG WAIT FOR HIM

Inspection of Hospital at Mount Pleasant to Which Mr. Frick Gave Half Million and Tour of Coke Plants Included; Guest of James S. Braddock.

Miss Helen Clay Frick, daughter of the late Henry Clay Frick, paid a visit Friday to the boyhood home of her father between Mount Pleasant and Scottsdale in search of facts bearing on the early life of the former coke magnate, talked later in the day with a schoolmate of Mr. Frick at the old public school near West Overton and today visited a number of plants of the H. C. Frick Coke company in the Mount Pleasant-Scottsdale region and other places of interest.

During her visit, said to have been the first, Miss Frick was the guest of her uncle, James S. Braddock of Mount Pleasant, whose late wife was a sister of Mr. Frick. On her trip about the region, in a big motor car, Miss Frick was accompanied by Mr. Braddock and his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Braddock King of New Kensington, a cousin of the heiress.

Friday afternoon Miss Frick visited the old home of her father, along the Mount Pleasant road, between Mount Pleasant and Scottsdale. She stopped here for some time. She then went to the little old school house in which Mr. Frick was a pupil. Hearing that she could learn much first hand about her father's boyhood days from Chester Booher of Scottsdale, Miss Frick went to that place to look him up. Mr. Booher, now an old man, and the future coke king went together on many a fishing excursion along Jacob's creek before the sulphur water from the mines rendered the stream uninhabitable for the fishy tribe.

Mr. Booher was not at home when the heiress called. She was told that he might be found at Unterbolder's or at the Ferguson undertaking establishment. He was not there. It developed that he was engaged in some work in his position as assessor. It was two hours before Miss Frick finally got to see him. From Mr. Booher she secured numerous facts of interest.

This morning Miss Frick, accompanied by Mr. Braddock and Mrs. King, visited the Memorial hospital at Mount Pleasant to which her father made a bequest of $500,000 in his will. Mr. Braddock is treasurer of the board of trustees of the hospital.

After spending a half hour going through the hospital, chatting with patients and conferring with the superintendent, Miss Frick and the members of her party left for their tour among the coke plants, which was to include Standard, Morewood and others. They planned to eat lunch, which they carried with them, in a grove near Altoona.

This afternoon Miss Frick was to leave for Altoona.

The main purpose of her visit to the coke region was to gather information relative to the boyhood and early manhood of her father. Other matters involved in the settlement of the estate of her father, of which she is one of the executors, were included.

WEST PENN FOLKS HEAR HISTORY OF TROLLEY SYSTEM

Development of Power End of Business Told Also at Big Gathering.

SOCIAL SESSION FOLLOWS

Close to 200 employees of the West Penn Power company, with friends and relatives and guests, attended the historical meeting and social session of the Coke Region division of the West Penn Section, National Electric Light association, in the parochial hall last night.

Interesting facts about the early history of the West Penn companies were given by a quartet of Pittsburgh executives. Vice President H. L. Mitchell of the West Penn Railways company read a history of the trolley system, tracing its development from the early days of small cars and short runs down to the present great network of lines in southwestern Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Vice President R. B. Keating told of the financing of the companies. Sales Manager T. S. Henderson, who has been with the commercial department for nearly 19 years, contrasted the early reluctance of the section to use electricity for industrial purposes with the present day demand for power, which is so great that the West Penn is constantly enlarging its power stations and building new ones to supply it. Vice President G. M. Gadsby pictured the rosy future which the associated companies are facing.

Harry Restofski, president of the Coke Region division, was in charge of the meeting. He announced that the division plans one general session each month with other meetings of an educational nature at frequent intervals. He intimated that the June meeting would be especially interesting although the form it will take was not disclosed. Only during July and August will the meetings be discontinued, he said, July being ordinarily too hot for such gatherings and August being the month of the big West Penn picnic at Oakford park.

Lunch, consisting of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee, was served. Much of the time was prepared by West Penn girls and wives of the men. Dancing began at 10 o'clock and continued until midnight.

Among 70 out-of-town guests, aside from the speakers already mentioned, were: W. W. Anderson, general storekeeper; G. E. Martie, assistant secretary; H. C. Bair, acting general superintendent of Territory A, West Penn Power company; James McCall, manager of welfare department; W. F. Sherman, publicity manager; Clarence McFarland and J. M. Ross of the stores department, all of Pittsburgh; Superintendent William W. Giesebrecht; H. D. Emory, Scottsdale; C. C. Gallagher, Latrobe, and C. M. Gladden, Jeannette.

Store and Gets Eatables.

A quantity of eatables were taken from the cellar of the grocery store of George Adams at Snyderstown last night. It is estimated the value of the stolen goods would approximate $10.

Entrance was gained by removing a pane of glass from the cellar door. The thief at first attempted to cut the glass out but before completing it changed his mind and removing the slats that held it in place, took out the entire pane.

A basket must have been used to carry off the booty as many eggs and some raisins were among the goods taken. Mr. Adams this morning said he was not certain just what else was stolen. Entrance to the store was barred by a heavily bolted door and the thief's activities were confined to the cellar.

BEAVER, May 8.—Judge Baldwin announced when common pleas court convened today that not until some time next week would he render a decision on the application of Freedom Local Union No. 323, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, for an injunction to restrain the national officers from cancelling its charter because some of the members are on strike. Application for the injunction was filed earlier in the week and national officers of the brotherhood were here to attend the hearing.

New men were being employed today to take the place of striking yardmen and trainmen on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie whose places were declared vacant by the company yesterday. Twenty-five per cent of the strikers, it was said at the company's offices, had returned. New men also were being employed by the Pennsylvania and Pottsville were drifting back to their places. It was reported at the company's offices, these additions to the working forces in the Conway and Pottsville yards allowed a free movement of freight. Passenger traffic, company officials declared, was moving as usual.

CHICAGO, May 8.—A demand that John Grunau, head of the Chicago Yardmen's association inform striking switchmen how they can get their seniority rights restored was made public in a letter sent to Grunau by R. S. Murphy, publicly chairman of the association.

"Great numbers of the members of C. Y. A. are asking 'When do you expect to land the 95 cents and $1 per hour?'" the letter reads. "It is logical to conclude the Labor Board will not give our members recognition or consideration until we return to work. What have you to offer us. Come out from under cover now, and say something one way or other. We also know the roads are operating fairly well under the circumstances."

Philadelphia Lawyer Makes Strong
Plea For Life While Peering Into Revolver Muzzle.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—William G. Thompson, lawyer and wealthy club man, attacked in his apartment in a hotel here by a burglar today, made so strong an appeal for his life that the desperado spared him. Thompson had been surprised and blackjacked into unconsciousness. When he regained his senses his assailant was covering him with a pistol.

"I knew my life was in stake so I summoned all my faculties and had a five-minute talk with the man," said Thompson. "He said he was determined to kill me because he knew I would call for help as soon as he left. I gave him my word I would not give the alarm for 15 minutes. He evidently believed me as he ripped off his telephone receiver, looked me in the room and disappeared."

Later there was a call to the hotel office from the fourth floor, evidently from the intruder. A voice said: "Man on 12th floor needs attention." Employees found Thompson covered with blood from a wound in his head. He received medical attention and will recover.

Reduction of Radicals' Bonds Because of "Exorbitant" Demand.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Continuing his defense of his conduct in alien deportations, Assistant Secretary of Labor Post told the House Rules Committee today that in many cases exorbitant bail was demanded by the Department of Justice so as to keep aliens locked up and that in reducing the amount of bail he only followed the constitutional prohibition against excessive bond.

By placing the amount at $3,000 instead of $10,000 he said the government was able to obtain the appearance of the aliens when they were wanted.

Mrs. Sara Ringler, one of the oldest residents of Conneltsville, is celebrating her 85th birthday today at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Simon T. Hay in Johnston avenue, where she makes her home. Mrs. Ringler was born in Bedford county in 1847, being one of a family born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kellar of Mann's Choice. At the early age of 15 years she was married to Edward Ringler and journeyed from Bedford to Westmoreland county, locating at Lionegal. To this union were born 15 children, seven of whom are still living. They are Mrs. Harrison Hay, Mrs. Simon P. Hay and Mrs. Sarah Barnhart of this city; Austin Ringler of McKeesport; William Ringler of Mount Pleasant; Stewart Ringler of Hill Farm, and Freeman Ringler of Dravosburg. Mrs. Ringler, in spite of her age, enjoys fairly good health. Her eyesight is remarkably good and she is able to more fully enjoy life. Up to until a few years ago she made her home on the old homestead at Lionegal and it was at the behest of her daughters that she changed her abiding place to this city. The executive committee of the Hay-Ringler association of Western Pennsylvania of which Mrs. Ringler is the oldest member, decided some weeks ago to hold a post card shower in honor of the lady. Notices were sent out and the members of the association, of which there are over 400, were asked all to mail a remembrance of some character to her. These remembrances have come in by the hundreds, coming from all parts of the country.

Aside from the post card shower many of the lady's relatives who reside in and adjacent to the city, have called in person and offered their congratulations. Mrs. Ringler is now making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Simon T. Hay of Johnston avenue.

Mother-Daughter Celebration.

The annual event of importance now before the Sunday schools of Fayette county is the Mother and Daughter celebration. Rivaling in interest, the Father and Son celebration under the sponsorship of the State S. S. association is that of Mother and Daughter Day. Owing to the fact that the second Sunday in May is generally observed as Mothers' Day, this season of the year has been chosen as a fitting time for this combined event. Two years ago the celebration was observed in certain sections of the state as an experiment, and it met with such widespread favor that it was launched last spring in almost every county of the state, including Fayette county, and again this year programs and literature have been mailed out from the state and county office to the superintendents and pastors and the outlook is now for a more universal observance than that of last year. The occasion is especially popular with the women, owing to the fact that the men are required to prepare and serve the banquet without any assistance from the fairer sex. For them, this is one evening of rest. Tuesday evening, May 11, is the time set for the banquet by the state department, but each school is requested to select the time which meets the needs of that particular school, although it should be some time in May. In the event that a school has failed to receive literature relating to this celebration, the same may be had upon request either to the county office, Uniontown, or from Rev. A. F. Hanes, South Brownsville. Owing to the difficulty found in obtaining carnations, it has been suggested that a small American flag be worn in its stead as a fitting emblem in honor of mother.

C. W. B. M. Meets.

The regular meeting of the C. W. B. M. auxiliary of the Christian church was held Thursday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock in the church. Business of a routine nature was transacted, after which the topic for study, "The Healing of Latin America," was taken up and interestingly discussed. At the close of the program Mrs. Ross Lytle sang "O Lord That Will Not Let Me Go." Following the meeting a number of the ladies attended the citizenship school at the Carnegie library.

Harvey Feeney.

Miss Mary Harvey and John Feeney, a well known couple of Uniontown, were married yesterday in St. John's Catholic church, Greensburg, with Rev. Father Murphy officiating. We Guarantee the very thing your heart desires

LET us show you the Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison. Let us play it for you. Let us tell you of the remarkable guarantee which goes with this instrument. A guarantee of realism! Do you know what this means?

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Realism! Only realism can make the phonograph as wonderful a source of music as all the artists in the world.

Realism! How can you know the phonograph that achieves Realism?

The Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison has proved its Realism by direct comparison with living artists. The singer sings—or the instrumentalist plays. Suddenly the artist stops, and the New Edison continues alone.

Four million people have witnessed these remarkable tests. They found that only by watching the artist could they tell when he was singing—or playing—and when the New Edison was Re-Creating his performance.

The instrument we'll show you is an exact duplicate of the instruments which triumphed in these comparison-tests. It will sustain the same test. We guarantee it to be capable of the same beautiful and astounding Realism,—and that is guaranteeing everything your heart desires.

Come in and hear it.

Our Budget Plan solves the money problem in buying your New Edison. Let us tell you about it.

It's a square meal in itself and a promoter of inner peace and harmony.

Every member of your family will be better off for eating more—much more Bread.

SIMCO SALVE
Is Offered as the Best Cold, Croup and Spanish Influenza Remedy on the Market.

Or the Connellsville Drug Co. or the Broadway Drug Store who are agent in Connellsville and Scottdale, will give you your money back.
It is a mystery to some people how SIMCO SALVE relieves so quickly.
Let it be simply a scientifically prepared remedy, made to act in a scientific way and scientifically prepared medicines get results.
The inhaling of the antiseptic vapors from SIMCO SALVE is a proper correction for the clogged, inflamed and germ infected respiratory organs and the heat of the body causes these vapors to be given off when the salve is applied to the chest and back. No wonder it quickly relieves severe colds, coughs, croup and hoarseness and is such a good remedy for treating influenza and pneumonia.
On account of the antiseptic and active healing power of SIMCO SALVE, it relieves terrible itching skin like eczema, chafing, salt rheum, itching piles, etc. for the healing of sores, cuts and bruises.
It is really unnecessary to have a rash on the face or pimples. Just go down to the Connellsville Drug Co. or the Broadway Drug Store Scottdale, and get a jar of SIMCO SALVE for the trifling sum of 30c. It is light in color.
SIMCO SALVE constitutes an exceptionally effective rubbing liniment.
A jar of SIMCO SALVE placed on your dresser means health protection.
Get a jar at once at the Connellsville Drug Co. or the Broadway Drug Store, Scottdale, or the money back if it fails. 30c, 60c and $1.00 per jar.

der from a Wm. M. Simpson Drug Co.,

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

'THE BELOVED CHEATER'—Featuring Lew Cody, the polished screen actor, is an interesting feature today.
The Beloved Cheater, as he is called,
is the idol of the fair sex, and,
different from most of that type, popular among his men friends. In fact, he is in such demand that he is constantly being asked by his less fortunate brothers to give them advice on their love affairs.

He is put in a most embarrassing situation by an odd request from one Would he teach his friend's fiancée how to kiss?

Always willing to oblige 'The Beloved Cheater' complies with the usual result—he wins the girl away from her fiance. Now usually this would be the end of the story, but there is a twist to this most surprising tale that makes this one of the most enjoyable pictures of the season.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Clara Kimball Young, the celebrated comedienne, will appear in 'Eyes of Youth,' a powerful production.

THE PARAMOUNT.

'BURNT WINGS'—A powerful drama, with Frank Mayo in the leading role, is being shown today.

Frank Mayo, the star, appears as Templeton the promising young artist, while Josephine Hill is his wife Joan. They return to America and meet James Cartwright, played by Rudolph Christians, and his daughter, Helen, played by Betty Blythe.
Cartwright is a wealthy art collector.
He commissions Templeton to paint his portrait and his daughter falls in love with the artist. On the brink of a tragedy Joan denounces Cartwright and tells her husband what happened when he lay sick in Paris.

The fourth chapter of Vitagraph's great serial, 'The Silent Avenger,' is also being shown.

CURED HIS RHEUMATISM!

I am eighty-three years old and I suffered for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army over 50 years ago. Like many others I spent money freely for so-called cures and I have read about Uric Acid until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain, my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change. You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as try to get rid of your rheumatism with the like complaints by taking treatment supposed to drive Uric Acid out of your blood and body. It took Mr. Ashelman fifty years to find out the truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism other disorders and recover his strength from 'The Inner Mysteries,' now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this trouble. If any reader of The Courier wishes 'The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism' overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a post card or letter to H. P. Clearwater, 164-B Street, Hallowell, Maine. Send now, lest you forget! If not a sufferer yourself, cut this notice and hand this good news and opportunity to some afflicted friend.
All who send will receive it by return mail without any charge whatever.

About Rheumatism.
People are learning that it is only a waste of time and money to take medicine internally for chronic muscular rheumatism, and about ninety-nine out of a hundred cases are one or the other of the varieties. All that is really necessary to afford relief is to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely.
Try it. It costs but 35 cents per bottle.

SCOTTSDALE'S LIBRARY PROBLEM.

Scottdale has a library problem differing somewhat from that confronting the trustees of the Connelville library, but involving the same important question of maintenance.Our dear neighbor's library is not one of those donated by the late Andrew Carnegie, but is the gift of the much lamented Abraham L. Keister.
During his long service as a school director he recognized the need of a library as an adjunct of the public schools. For a number of years preceding his death he contributed books to form a nucleus of a library. Observing the benefit the school children derived from this small beginning, he conceived the idea of extending the privileges to the citizens of the town.
An arrangement was made with the school board to provide suitable rooms, fit them for the purpose and employ a librarian. Through a board of trustees, Mr. Keister donated $10, 000 for the purchase of additional books which, added to those provided by his previous benefactions, were to form a library for the free use of the citizens and residents of Scottdale.
Under a trust agreement with the school board the library was established and has been expanded to 15,000 volumes with a yearly circulation of 10,000 volumes.It was always understood that Mr.
Keister purposed making provision for the permanent maintenance of the library, but unfortunately death came to him suddenly and unexpectedly before he made the necessary arrangements. B. F. Keister took up the support of the library of his brother's death and has continued in this capacity until the present time. He has offered to contribute to the library's support for another year upon the condition that it be allowed to remain in the quarters now occupied by it, and that the school board otherwise carry out the terms of the trust agreement. This offer the school board has apparently declined to accept, having notified the library trustees to vacate the premises by July 31.Without a suitable place to go and with the means of support cut off by refusal of the board to accept Mr.
Keister's proposal, the trustees are facing the possibility of being unable to continue the library. To meet the situation the trustees have urged that the agreement be continued for another year and that meantime the school board join with the borough council to levy a total tax of one and one-half mills for the support of the library.This suggestion has not been acted upon but the school board has indicated a willingness to donate ground for a library building. The trustees express a willingness to cooperate on such a plan, but it has not yet assumed definite shape, hence the doubts and fears of friends of the library that it may not be permitted to continue the good work begun by its founder.To disinterested observers it would seem possible that the situation can be worked out satisfactorily if the best interests of the borough of Scottdale and its citizens are given right of way in a consideration of the problem. The people of the Mill Town are too progressive to allow prejudices, or differences of personal opinion to deprive themselves and their children of the almost priceless advantages a public spirited fellow townsman had provided for them and which, it is reasonable to assume, he would have made proper provision to perpetuate had not been called by death before his plans were completed.To those whose mothers have gone before tomorrow should be a day of "cleared memories." To those who are yet permitted to enjoy the priceless blessing of her companionship, advice, counsel and loving sympathy, it should be a day of renewed determination to do those things that will, in part, atone for the loss of the willing sacrifices she has made and will be ready to make even to the end.Emma Goldman, from her retreat in Soviet Russia, writes that she "misses America." Sorry, Emma, we can't exchange the compliment.It may be a long step between the appointment of a home committee and the occupancy of a home, but here's hoping the Milton Bishop Post of The American Legion will realize its desire sooner than expected.Too bad somebody has not started a school for the education of male voters.
They need it more than the women.Mayor Duggan has given ample notice for the spring cleanup from indulgences in some sections it might be wise to begin the activities at once, otherwise the week end would, for that purpose, may not be sufficient.E. Lowry Haines, one of the "beet-less purgers," gives due and timely warning to all and singular that "phantom cleanups" are to be returned as one of the pre-emption acts of a pure and undiluted Democracy.The wife of the president of France has shown as much good sense as

One Advantage of Long Life.

CAPSTAN IMPROVEMENTS

Glass Company Plans to Build Large
Storage Bin.The Capstan Glass company at South Connelville has prepared plans for a large storage bin in which to keep raw material. The bin will be so erected that the materials can be unloaded from drop bottom cars and taken to it by automatic elevators.The plant at present is running at half capacity on account of the car strike, as a result of the railroad strike. It is expected to boost the output to capacity again soon and the bin will be filled with raw material, which will insure a six weeks' run at capacity.The new bins will be located where the mixing plant now stands. The construction of a carton department has been about completed.

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

THE MAN WHO FORGOT.

He wears a long and solemn face
And drives the children from his place.
He doesn't like to hear them shout
Or see them run and romp about.
And if they chance to climb his tree,
He is as quick to climb the tree.If in his yard they drive a ball,
Which near his pretty flowers should fall,
He hides the leather sphere away,
Hoping to thus prevent their play.The youngsters worry him a lot,
This sorry man who has forgot
That once upon a time he, too,
The self-same mischief used to do.
The boyhood he has left behind
Has strangely vanished from his mind.And he is old and gray and cross
For having suffered such a loss—
He thinks he never had the joy
That is the birthright of a boy.He has forgotten how he ran,
Tied to a poor dog's tail a can Broke window panes and loved to swipe
Some neighbor's apples, red and ripe—
He thinks that always, day and night,
His conduct was exactly right.
In boys today he cannot see
The youngster that he used to be.
Forgotten is that by-gone day,
He was as mischievous as they.Poor man! I'm sorry for your lot.
The best of life have you forgot.
Could you remember what you were,
Unhappened and untouched by spur,
These youngsters that you drive away
Would be your comrades here today.
Among them you could play and walk
And share their laughter and their talk.
You could be young and blithe as they,
Could you recall your yesterday.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, May 8.—Town council, at a special meeting last night, authorized the purchase of Ruder inn for a borough building at a cost of $20,600 plus the school tax for 1920, providing the parties holding a mortgage against the hotel will continue to hold it for a period of two years, the borough agreeing to pay the difference between the mortgage and the purchase price, amounting to $2,600 on July 1, 1920. Execution of an agreement for the purchase was authorized.

District Attorney N. A. Cort appeared before council and informed the members that if the carnival exhibiting here next week for the benefit of the firemen runs a single game of chance it immediately will be closed.

Carrying of all rubber uniforms of the firemen on the fire truck was ordered. Also the purchase of a dozen rubber coats, a similar number of pairs of boots and a dozen hats.

The petition for the audit of the Center avenue paving account was ordered. The petitioners will be represented in the audit.

Hilda, Abbess of Whitley.

In 1916 the world held its breath, mute with horror. The Zeppelins had swooped down over Whitley, on the coast of Yorkshire. A cry of vengeance went up when it was learned that half of the ancient abbey of Whitley had been destroyed. Founded in the seventh century, it was Hilda's abbey. The majestic ruins through all the ages could be seen as you climbed the quiet little seaside town of Whitley, its red-tiled houses seeming to lend directly and only to that abbey on the heights. Hilda was a princess of the blood royal, but early dedicated herself to the religious life. King Oswy gave her a grant of land and she erected the celebrated convent, or abbey, of Whitley. Of her sanctity and of her learning the men in high places in church and state who sought her advice and prayers attest in full measure. Caedmon, the earliest English poet, tarried in the monastery for monks which she erected near her own convent to reform the religious life of Britain. The famous council of Whitley was held in the monastery. Could not the Zeppelins have spared the sacred and almost perfect ruins of a holy spot like Whitley abbey?—Chicago Journal.

Influence of Lunar Cycle.

Physical and mental alternations are well marked in chronic invalids and in the insane. In the case of a sufferer from heart disease, with asthmatic symptoms, a careful record was kept of the singularly regular lunar monthly attacks. The cyclic excitement of lunatics has also been studied by physicians, and in one of the investigations it was found that 40 per cent of men and 46 per cent of women in 333 asylum patients had definite periods of relapse.

The influence of the lunar cycle upon the prevalence of suicide has been observed by several investigators. More cheerful is the evidence that the phase of the moon affects the marriage rate. The rhythm of the aptitude for mental attention is a topic of great significance in the conduct of life.

EX-SOLDIER ASKS YOUR VOTE FOR CONGRESS

James Blaine Warner, Prothonotary of Somerset county, herewith submits his platform as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Fayette-Somerset-Greene district, at the Republican primary May 18, 1920.

Legislation embodying practical application of the eternal principles of right that made the American Declaration of Independence the successor of the Magna Charta in the slow but irrepressible evolution of human liberty.

Laws with teeth to stop profiteering and rigid enforcement.

Approval of amendments to the federal constitution by vote of the people instead of state legislatures.

Important legislation by Congress, including declarations of war, to be approved by vote of the people.

Americanism, as measured by the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

Free press and free speech to safeguard American ideals.

Law and order.

Industry to produce character and contentment as well as dollars.

Removal of taxes from houses, to encourage instead of penalize the home-builder to help solve the housing problem. Enough other things are taxed to run the government, if the money is not wasted.

Prohibition enforcement, law permitting light beer and wines.

Support of Knox resolution declaring an end to the fiction that the United States is still at war.

Protection of personal liberties and restoration of individual rights proclaimed by the founders of the Republic.

Clearer definition of executive power.

Opposition to one-man rule in nation, limitation of necessities of life free of custom house charges, to reduce cost of living and profiteering.

Federal judges and district attorneys to be elected by the people instead of appointment by the President.

Adjustment of World War soldiers' pay on basis nearer to that paid for other war work.

No entangling alliances with European nations.

CONTRACT LET FOR BUILDING BLEACHERS AT FAYETTE FIELD

Robert L. Hannam Will Begin Work on Stands Immediately.

THE SEATING CAPACITY 800

The Connelville Baseball club has awarded the contract to erect bleachers for Fayette Field to Robert L. Hannam, who will begin their erection immediately. It was thought advisable to proceed at once on this important detail in view of the fact that the opening game, takes place one week from today.

The erection of the bleachers should be completed by Wednesday or Thursday. They will extend down each base line from the home plate and will accommodate at least 800 people. It is expected that the grounds and stands will be entirely finished by Wednesday night. On this day the Independents will play a practice game with New Wilson's All-Stars. The game will be called about 7 o'clock. Every player who wants a try-out for the team which will put Connelville back on the baseball map is asked to report to Chip Francis on Monday or Tuesday at Fayette Field.

The first game to be played on the Independents' schedule will be that with the Turtle Creek Athletics on next Saturday.

BASEBALL CHIEFS

The Captain Glass company's team ordered uniforms yesterday. This means another fast team will be seen in action this season.

On next Tuesday afternoon a return game will be played between the Trotter team and the Baltimore & Ohio Shops at Trotter. The B. & O. team attributes its defeat of last Thursday to the fact that it was only trying out the players in new positions.

The American Chain team plays St. Vincent's today at Beauty. The Independents have two games on their schedule with the Chain team for Decoration Day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Both games will be at Fayette Field.

BOWLING

The Wilson-Irwin bowling team has agreed to give the Briller-Collard team an opportunity to play them and the first game will be rolled next Wednesday night. The match will be a local duck pin affair of ten games. They will roll five games on Wednesday night at the Mahanath alleys and the final five on Thursday night at the West Penn alleys.

BASEBALL STORIES

Ed Barrow is still endeavoring to land a second baseman for his club.

New York university has a veteran line except for third base this season.

The Joplin club sold infielder Joe Evers to the Peoria club of the Three I league.

As the Brooklyn infield has been playing it is a 20 per cent better outfit than last year.

Every time Larry Woodall, the juvenile Tiger catcher, appears behind the bat, he looks better.

Babe Ruth says he will beat his record of 29 home runs for the season made last year this year.

Manager Mitchell has great hopes of Truck Turner developing into a pitcher fit to be used as a regular.

Roy Massey and Bill Lamy have ended their holdout stuff and the Louisville outfield is now complete.

The two Schang brothers who were given trials by the Baltimore club have been released by Jack Dunn.

W. T. Morrissey, president of the Grand Rapids club of the Central league, is after several Tiger catchers.

Herman Held, former umpire in the Pacific coast league, will be an umpire in the Pacific International this year.

Spitters are going to have a tough time of it under the rule that they may not rub the ball on their uniform.

ELECTRIC MACHINES SUPPLANT AND HELP THE WASHERWOMAN; BIG DEMAND FOR THEM HERE

Housewives are meeting the scarcity of wash women and the high prices charged by them with electric washing machines. Connelville, along with other cities, has developed into a ripe field for these machines and dealers as rapidly as they can be secured.

One man this morning said he had sold at least 50 since the first of the year. Another said he did not know how many he had disposed of but that they were selling rapidly. Dealers say there is such a demand that enough of them cannot be secured. The main reason for this is the boosting of the wash woman's price. Another reason is that wash women are

AGGRESSIVE BOXERS STAY ON OFFENSIVE

Willing to Take Punch in Order to Drive One Home.

Fans Seldom See Fighters Like Mike O'Dowd, Jimmy Wilde or Jack Dempsey Doing Much Backing Up While Engaged in Ring.

Boxers of the fighting type figure that a batter on the defensive is losing.

Therefore, one seldom sees aggressive fighters, as Mike O'Dowd, Jimmy Wilde, Jack Dempsey and others, doing much backing up.

They are forever coming to their quarry, keeping on top in the milling, taking punishment to hand out more. The aggressive fighter is usually an open fighter. He gives and takes. O'Dowd is this sort of a brawler. He has little defense and takes many punches, but his own heavy artillery soon brings down the opposition. Wilde has an open style though a peculiar one. He also has a hard punch. Dempsey is an open fighter but a shifty one, and carries a wallop. To back up though, to be on the defensive now and then, does not mean that a boxer is losing. Benny Leonard is very often backing up on his opponents. Leonard uses this method to draw his opponent to him in the open and give him a better opportunity to put over a knockout punch if he desires to. Richie Mitchell is an aggressive fighter, yet he often waits for the other fellow to come to him. Pete Herman is a defensive fighter, but he never loses. He can come out of his shell whenever he desires and whip his opponent. Jack Britton is the same sort of scrupper.

EXPECT TEXAN TO STAR

One ball player Texas fans figure as sure to go up after this year is Outfielder Ed Brown of San Antonio. He broke into the game out of the Army last year and was a good deal of a sensation, but he needed polish. Manager Johnny Nee expects to shine him up so that the big leaguers won't overlook him next fall.

Cleveland players are so busy talking about winning the pennant that Manager Speaker has forbidden mention of this contingency.

If anything happens to the Red Sox infield, Manager Ed Barrow thinks he can patch it up with Harry Miller, the recruit from the Virginia league.

Andrew V. King, former University of West Virginia football and baseball player, has signed a Pittsburgh National league contract as catcher.

Rip Hagerman, who used to be a star hurler with the Saints a few years ago, now pitches independent ball with the Alma Republics of Alma, Mich.

George Clink, pitcher secured from Teguya by Milwaukee, and given his release when he refused to report to the Brewers, has signed with Seattle.

Sentell, the umpire, who makes Fort Worth his home, once played with the Phillies of the National league while under the management of Billy Murray.

Why the Gainaday Stays Sold

1. The Gainaday Wringer is the strongest and surest of any wringer in use today. Swings to any position and stays there rigidly. Built of maple. Rubber rolls are of finest quality.
2. Zinc Cylinder, perforated with hundreds of holes; fitted with five baffle boards which gently, but firmly surge the clothes up and down through the hot suds. Sets several inches above the tub-bottom, permitting heavier dirt sediment to drop below, insuring cleaner water next to the clothes. Light in weight; will not corrode.
3. Cylinder Door always at top when cylinder stops. Stays firmly in position until released.
4. Copper Tub will not rust. Built of finest metal, beautifully finished; wear-proof.
5. Threaded Drain Spout permits use of hose. Located high enough to allow pail to be placed under it.
6. 1/4 H. P. Motor is strong enough to operate washer and wringer at same time.
7. Cap in which vaseline, placed every three months, keeps motor in efficient operation.
8. Double Swivel Casters permit the Gainaday to be pushed around with one hand.
9. Safety Release on Wringer is the best known; responds to light touch.
10. Wringer Gear-Case Handle starts, stops or reverses the wringer rolls, on the instant.
11. Safety Catch holds wringer rigidly to prevent swinging back.
12. Handy Switch Button is a great Gainaday convenience.
13. Control Lever conveniently starts and stops cylinder. Cylinder always stops with lid up.
14. Lever which secures wringer in any position desired.
15. Strong Gear Case houses the Gainaday reversing mechanism. Grease proof; no chance for it to soil the clothes. Strong and compact.
16. Automatic Friction Drive Shaft prevents motor from burning out. When load on washer or wringer is too heavy, this remarkable device stops the operation at once.

Both went down together, but Westcott was on his feet again before Lacy could act, closing with the latter. It was hand-to-hand, the silent struggle for mastery between two men not evenly matched, men asking and receiving no mercy. The revolver of one lay on the floor, the other still reposed on the open desk, and neither could be fought out with bare hands. Twice Westcott struck, his clenched fist bringing blood, but Lacy clung to him, one hand twisted in his neck-band, the other viciously forcing back his head. Unable to release the grip, Westcott gave back, bending until his adversary was beyond balance; then, suddenly straightening, hurled the fellow sideways. But by now Beaton, dazed and confused, was upon his feet. With the blow of a wild bull he flung himself on the struggling men, forcing Lacy aside, and smashing into Westcott with all the strength of his body. The impetus sent all three crashing to the floor.

Exulted voices sounded without; then blows resounded against the wood of the locked door, but the three men were oblivious to all but their own struggle. Like so many wild beasts they clutched and struck, unable to disentangle themselves. Enraged, his face like chalk, got to his knees and crept across the floor until his hand closed on Westcott's revolver. Lifting himself by a grip on the desk, he swung the weapon forward at the very instant the minor rose staggering, dragging Beaton with him. There was a flash of flame, a sharp report, and Westcott sprang aside, gripping the back of a chair. The gunshot sank into shapelessness on the floor as the chair hurtled through the air straight at Enright's head.

With a crash the door fell, and a black mass of men surged in through the opening, the bartender leading them, an axe in his hand. Beaton lay motionless just as he had dropped; Enright was in one corner, dazed, unnered, a red gash across his forehead, from which blood dripped, the revolver, struck from his fingers, yet smoking on the floor; Westcott, his clothes torn, his face bruised by blows, breathing heavily, went slowly backward, step by step, to the farther wall, conscious of nothing now but the savagely hostile faces of these new enemies. Lacy, staggering as though drunk, managed to attain his feet, bite, desire for revenge, yielding him strength. This was his crowd, and his mind was quick to grasp the opportunity.

"There's the man who did it," he shouted, his arm flung out toward Westcott. "I saw him shoot. See, that's his gun lying on the floor. Don't let the murderer get away!"

He started forward, an oath on his lips, and the excited crowd surged after, growling anger. Then the mass of them seemed suddenly rest assured, and the marshal plowed his way through heedlessly, his hat gone, and a blue-barreled gun in either hand. He swept the muzzle of one of these into the bartender's face menacingly, his eyes searching the maddened crowd.

"Wait a minute, you," he commanded sharply. "I reckon I've got something to say 'bout this. Put down that axe, Mike, or you'll never draw another glass of beer in this camp. You know me, lads, an' I never draw except for business. Shut your mouth, Lacy; don't touch that gun, you fool! I am in charge here—this is my job; and if there is going to be any lynching done, it will be after you get roared. Stand back, now; all of you—yes, get out into that barroom. I mean you, Mike! This man is my prisoner, and I'll defend him. Ay! I'll do more, I'll let him defend himself. Here Westcott, pick up your gun on the floor. Now, stand here with me! We're going out through that bunch, and if one of these rascals puts a paw on you, let him have it!"

The crowd made way, reluctantly enough, growing cures, but with no man among them sufficiently reckless to attempt resistance. They lacked leadership, for the little marshal never once took his eye off Lacy. At the door he turned, walking backward, trusting in Westcott to keep their path clear, both levelled revolvers ready for any movement.

He had but one object before him—to get his prisoner safely outside into the open. Beyond that he would trust to luck, and a fair chance. His grey eyes were almost black as they gleamed over the leveled revolvers and his clipped mustache fairly bristled.

"They were far from free even outside the swinging doors and in the sunshine. Already a rumor of what had occurred had spread like wildfire, and men were on the street, eager enough to take some hand in the fray. A few were already about the steps, while others were running rapidly toward them, excited, but uncertain.

In the night. Take the alley and turn at the hotel. Don't let anybody stop you. Christopher Columbus, I bade to run from such cattle, but it's our only chance."

There was no time to waste. They were not yet at the mouth of the alley when the infuriated pursuers burst through the saloon doors, cursing and shouting.

There were a dozen shots, but the two runners plunged about the corner of the building and disappeared, apparently untouched. Twice they turned and fired, yet at that, hardly paused in their race. Westcott held back, retarded by the shorter legs of his companion, nevertheless they were fully a hundred feet in advance of their pursuers when they reached the hotel. In spite of Lacy's urging the cowardly crew exhibited small desire to close in. The marshal glancing back over his shoulder, grinned cheerfully.

"We've got 'em beat, Jim," he panted, "less than's others headin' us off; run like a white-head; don't mind me."

The road ahead was clear, except for the speeding cowboys, and the marshal made extremely quick work of them. There was a fusillade of shots, and when these ended, one rider was down in the dust, the other galloping madly away, trying flat on his pony, with no purpose but to get out of range. The two fugitives plunged into the bushes opposite, taking the roughest, but most direct course to where the rather precipitous banks dropped off to the stream below. The marshal, pausing for nothing, flung himself bodily down the steep bank, uncaring his belt, as he half ran, half rolled to the bottom.

Parents Were Almost Hopeless, But He Is Now Well and Strong.

"Our little boy's health was so poor we were afraid he was going to lose home. He is 10 years old and has been weak and sickly ever since he was eight months old caused by pneumonia. We have been very careful with him and doctored him continually but we had almost despaired of ever having a strong, well boy."

"But since giving him Mils Emulsion, and his trouble is gone, and he is in perfect health."—Mrs. G. W. Smiley, 20 Maple street, Dayton, O.

For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Mils Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it because unlike many emulsions and tonics, it really tastes good. Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action doing away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Mils Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Mils Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles and if you use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Mils Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Suggestion for a Camping Trip.
Buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home. As a rule it cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamships and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you.

The Building Proposition

It cannot be denied the time is here when our local carpenters demand an advance in wages—

But What of it?

You have always paid the brick mason more than the carpenter, and the painter and plasterer as much. The mason needs a hammer and trowel, the painter a brush and bucket, the plasterer a trowel and two pieces of wood. A little slight of hand and no education is enough for these tradesmen, but a carpenter needs many tools and the knowledge and skill to use them, or you don't want him. The mason and plasterer cannot build their own scaffold to work on, and the painter needs none, and neither of the three would ever have any work if the carpenter did not do his work first.

NOW WHY NOT PAY THE CARPENTER?

You prosperous builder, would not want to make $6.00 to $8.00 per day as brakeman, flagman or conductor and see your carpenter work for less?

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcline mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly snuffing and sniffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and sniff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

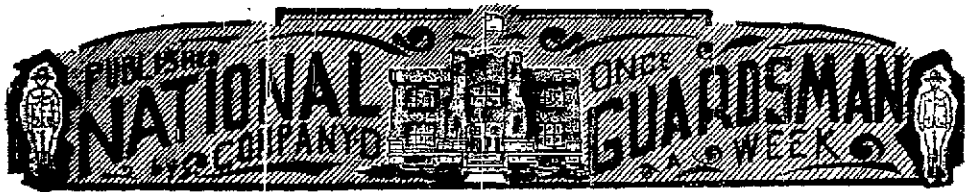

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

EDITORIAL.

In addition to a gradually growing debt Company D is assuming a much larger one in attempting to use this space set aside to the organization by The Courier. Its readers are fully aware of the fact that The Courier has had a large part in bringing to a definite close the recruiting of Company D—the famous old unit of the 10th Infantry. In the face of recent opposition much has been accomplished towards the final drive that has put the local unit in the completed class.

It is for the purpose of acquainting the friends of Company D with the activities which are taking place at the Armory that the National Guardsman has been planned. It is only fair that every one who has seen fit to assist the command in any way should have a look in on our work. Come to the Armory any Monday evening and see for yourself or, if this is not convenient, read the columns of the National Guardsman. Here will be given a full account each week of the drills, athletic, social and other affairs of the Company. This paper will be a big help to the Guardsman himself for through it he will be informed of orders and notices of drills and meetings.

Read the National Guardsman and become a booster for Company D.

Forty-five men were present for the first drill of Company D on last Monday evening. The schedule was adhered to without exception. Every ounce of energy possible was put into the work by the instructors. The men were certainly pleased with the "pep" displayed and the variation in the schedule, which made it possible to bring a new subject to their attention as soon as another began to drag.

Certainly no new bunch of men brought together for the first time could have made a finer showing than did Company D. The public is cordially asked to come out each Monday evening and see what the command is doing. The physical exercise at 9 o'clock is the most interesting thing to view.

Captain Skomp in instructing the recruits was handicapped after the first 20 minutes of instruction by having his voice go bad due to the need of exercise in giving commands.

Lieutenant Bewick brought back old memories to the experienced men in his hour of drilling them. They demonstrated the point that a thing well learned is not easily forgotten.

Lieutenant Marietta was not able to give full attention to his map drawing section because of some office work that had to be done. Next Monday evening this work will be provided for in advance.

Billy Carter sure did put the "pep" into his boxing instructions. The men became interested immediately and with one or two exceptions followed Carter in the exercises uniformly.

Anyone who has not seen Carter as a P. I. is missing something good. "Billy" has a well known reputation as a boxer. He holds the championship of Camp Grant, Ill., in the light and welter-weight class, having won the title when he defeated "Frankie" Hunter. Carter put on an exhibition bout with "Packs" McFarland, the noted boxer. He defeated young "Pete" Jackson, another noted boxer. In a match with "Edie" Dorsey of New York City, at Cumberland, December 10, 1919, the decision was a tie at the end of the 15th round.

"Johnny" Kirk was knocked out in the first round in this city on April 28, 1919.

Private Krepps, a veteran of preceding companies, showed he had not forgotten any of the fine points of the Drill Regulations while putting the experienced men through their paces.

Private Johnson is new at the instruction game but his material in First Aid was excellent. Next Monday evening he will form his section into tears and give demonstrations of the work. After a little experience Private Johnson will be in the first rank as an instructor.

Within two minutes after starting the singing Private Bauman was able to eliminate the "cellar voices" and the response to "Comrades Sull." Company D's song, aroused the patriotism of every one present. Private Engleka played the piano.

Private Hume, under the coaching of Bugler Atkins, is preparing for an examination as Second Bugler.

Private Charles Yaw and Private Herbert Ellis were detailed for office work at the first drill meeting.

Rev. George W. Buckner, pastor of the First Christian church, was chaplain for Company D at our initial drill. On each Monday evening a local minister will be asked to be present and act in behalf of Chaplain Schell of the 10th Infantry. Rev. Proudfoot of the First Presbyterian church will be our chaplain next Monday evening.

We remember Center college and her praying football squad, Washington at Valley Forge and the praying builders of the Declaration of Independence.

Major William Fish of New Brighton, who has been designated as commander of the First Battalion, of which Company D is a unit, visited the armory Wednesday evening and looked over the papers of our enlisted personnel. Major Fish was highly pleased with the quality of the men on our roster and of the success we have had in recruiting. He is coming back to Connellsville in a short time to muster in the company.

Private Bob Hannam has been detailed to prepare a club room. He is also collecting a number of pictures which were taken at camp. These pictures will be shown in a projecting machine to members of the company who wish to see them.

Private Bob Springer is compiling a scrap book for Company D.

Ten non-coms reported for the non-com school. We need 20. They will be selected from the experienced personnel and meritorious privates of the company.

For the Good of the Company. All members are requested to bring a friend to the armory on drill nights. Those who signed up with Company D are considered members. So long as they are indifferent to official notifications the captain will be obliged to inform them concerning his wishes. Have the goodnoses to come to the armory and explain your attitude.

Members who can't possibly attend drill on Monday evening will please call the office and report such absence before drill.

THE SPONSORS.

Twenty little sponsors. Playing in a boat. Three mostly Privates. Started it about.

Two lively athletes. Quickly hopped ashore. Some jumped in the water. There were 14 more.

Four staunch sailors. Began to ply the oar. Work is a blessing. So 10 were mighty sore.

Three little sponsors. Had learned how to cook. They supplied the cats. I read a book.

Three singing maidens. Looked a-beam to see. The others, washing dishes. As happy as can be.

Two delighted creatures. Wanted to walk. They were called foolish. And refused to talk.

One little sponsor. Left all alone. Got very sore sea-sick. And cried to be at home.

You all are dreaming. First there were 28. If more are needed. There will be PLENTY.
